

ZURICH - LITTLE BIG CITY

Discover the city on a large and small scale. Get to know the culture and way of life together with new friends.

Scouts' House Züri

29. Juli - 6. August 2023

18 - 22

Camp fee CHF 300.00

ZURICH - LITTLE BIG CITY

AIM

Discover the city on a large and small scale . Get to know the culture and way of life together with new friends. We look forward to showing you our little big city in the facets of countryside, people, education, history, culture and nature.

PHYSICAL CONDITION

You are in good physical shape, open-minded and curious. We move around on foot, by bicycle, by public transport and by boat.

LANGUAGES

German, English and French.

COST

Camp fee is CHF 300.00
Participants pay their own costs to and from the camp and shall have their own pocket money.
All other costs are sponsored by the organizing and sponsoring club.

ACCOMMODATION

Base camp in Scouts' House ZÜRi (<https://pfadihuuszueri.ch/>). With its attractive location near the zoo, it is ideally suited for numerous activities and events - indoors and outdoors. Very good public transport connections.

INSURANCE

All participants must be insured against illness, accident and third party liability according to Rotary International recommendation. Email insurance copy for our approval before the start of the camp.

PARTICIPANTS

20, maximum 2 per country.

CLOTHING / GEAR

Casual and sports clothing, good shoes, swimsuit, bath towel, rainwear, sunscreen and bag.

DEADLINE

30. April 2023